Priorities and challenges in rural Indigenous palliative care: Cultural safety revisited

PRESENTERS:

Susana Caxaj, PhD, RN, Assistant Professor

School of Nursing, Faculty of Health and Social Development, UBC Okanagan

Kaela Schill, MSc student

Community Health Sciences, Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary

ABSTRACT: Literature on rural Indigenous palliative care was reviewed to determine priorities and challenges, as well as strategies for a culturally safe palliative approach to care.

This presentation will outline findings and how cultural safety can play an important role in developing Indigenous-centred palliative care.
